Public meeting on Post Office set for Jan. 6

On Thursday, January 6, 1983, at 7:30 p.m., the Carbondale Historical Society will hold an open-forum at the Berean Baptist Church, Sunday School room. The issue will be the moving of the Post Office to a new location on Dundaff Street.

Postmaster, City of Carbondale, Gerald C. Barett, will be guest speaker for the evening with a question and answer period following his speech.

All members of the community are asked to attend this vital meeting.
